One needs only drop the needle on Pietrini's new release, Rock & Roll is Dead, to see why he is so lauded in Milwaukee and beyond.

Best Live Act in Milwaukee (Milwaukee Magazine) Artist of the Year (Wisconsin Area Music Awards) Best Song in a Feature Film (Mark Awards LA).

Having opened for the likes of Walker Hayes, Huey Lewis, and Ray Wylie Hubbard, Pietrini has proven his ability as someone who can run with the best. He has also toured extensively, carving out audiences as far north as the twin cities and as far south as Tampa. Be it his skillful writing and dynamic production, his endearing and energetic stage presence or his everyman's approach to his music, it's clear that this new album and this band, meets people where they are and holds them for the entire 43 min and 31 sec.

"Rock & Roll is Dead is a stellar display of musical versatility, seasoned songwriting, and heartfelt introspection."
